THE DAILY CONSTITUTION

VOL. X. ATLANTA, GA. FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 26, 1878. NO 293

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE.

THE CONSTITUTION will publish the very fullest and most graphic accounts of the Methodist conference which assembles in Atlanta during May.

We will make an especial feature of these reports, and it may be relied on that they will be the best procurable. THE CONSTITUTION, containing besides these reports an entertaining miscellany of news, humor and general literature will be furnished, post-paid or by carrier, to subscribers during the session of the conference at five cents per day or at one dollar for the month.

It will be advisable for persons wishing this extra edition to send their orders in at once. News-dealers will do well to have their orders filed for extra copies during the conference. There will be an immense demand for them.

A SUSPECTED MAN.

Arrest of a Party Supposed to be the Murderer of Colonel Salisbury.

We learn that yesterday about noon a man was arrested on the Georgia train coming to Atlanta while it was standing at [illegible]ge. It is claimed that the suspected man is Dr R U Palmer, of Browneville, Alabama, the man who assassinated Colonel W L Salisbury, of Columbus, at Seale, Alabama. There are such large rewards offered for Palmer that there is a sharp lookout for him in all parts of the country. The suspected man yesterday was arrested by Mr P V Carbine, of Madison, and Mr T Tunison, of Greensboro, who believe from his general appearance that he is Palmer. It seems that the arrested man applied to Carbine at Madison for help, stating that he was a Free Mason, and that he had gotten into some trouble in New Orleans, and was trying to get across the country. He asked that Carbine help raise him a purse to aid him. Carbine began to suspect something and the result of his suspicions was the seizure of the suspected party by him and Mr. Tunnison.

The arrested man denies any knowledge of Palmer whatever. He was carried to Madison from Rutledge and was there where he will be kept until he is identified or proven not to be Palmer. Those who know Palmer and heard the description of the man arrested, say there is a remarkable coincidence of appearance.

PUT IN JAIL,

SATURDAY RACES.

Beaumont and Storm to Trot.

The race at Oglethorpe park tomorrow afternoon between "Beaumont," a stallion, owned by Chuck Anderson, of Marietta, and "Storm," owned by Clint Taylor, of this place, for $300 a side, will settle the controversy of long standing as to the speed of the two horses. The interest of the race is increased on account of both horses being "in the shed" and serving mares from the same territory, hence the winner value will be enhanced. "Beaumont" having been in training in Augusta for some time has several backers from that city, who appear to be willing to back their judgment for a considerable amount. "Storm" has many friends here, and the indications are that the betting will be lively. The horses are closely matched, and the backers of both of them seem to be confident of winning the race. The horses will start promptly at 3 o'clock.

The race, as before stated, will be the best three in five, both horses pulling wagons. A special train on the Western and Atlantic railroad will leave the car-shed at 2¼ o'clock and return after the race, charging only 25 cents for the round trip. The street cars will also run to the grounds. From the interest manifested in the trot by the public we feel justified in predicting that a large crowd will be in attendance.

"CLOSER-TO-MY-BOSOM-COME."

The Waltz in a New Light.

Last night Mr. Smith Clayton delivered his lecture on the the "Closer-to-my-bosom-come Club," in which he treats the waltz in an original and striking way. The lecture was delivered last night to a very elegant audience, for the benefit of the Ladies' Benevolent home. Since Mr Clayton first propounded this unique theme from the local stage, he has made great improvements in his style of treating it. He has elaborated his views and widened the scope of his observation until he now gives a production of rare wit and varied attractions wrought both by natural brilliancy and careful study. In this time, when the waltz is the subject of so much discussion, the lecture comes in with peculiar fitness and strikes a popular view of it too; at least, the popular view in our city and his thrusts, though they appear cruel and harsh at times, are all so finely put that we admit they find the weak points in the victimized waltz.

Much of the wit in the lecture is peculiarly brilliant and telling. The humorous descriptions and word pictures of modern society are drawn with unfailing fidelity.

There is a tact in the management of the subject which presents its salient points admirably and puts them most prominently forward.

For one hour the speaker had his audience in perfect attention and enjoyment of his effort. We have seldom seen a lecture take so well. Mr Clayton speaks in an easy, natural manner with perfect enunciation and impressive manner. In this lecture of his he has some rare thoughts, some decidedly rich expressions, some remarkably original idioms, all condensed into a satire which is well worth the hearing of any audience, and when heard will be enjoyed.

Tuesday Night's Storm.

From the Chattanooga papers of Thursday we gather additional particulars of the storm. It was very fierce all along the line of the Nashville, Chattanooga and [illegible] railway. In the Cumberland mountains its fury was intense. To the passengers on the Nashville bound train, which left Chattanooga at 9:30 p. m., it was a terrible moment; and, although assured that there was absolutely no danger they could not separate from their minds the idea of danger when mingled with so terrible a scene.

When going up the Cumberland mountains, near Catching's, a sheet of water, dashing down from the heights above, found its way into the train, and deluged every passenger on the left side of the car. In the sleeping car, too, the water found its way, startling the sleepers with its icy chill, and leaving them under the impression that another flood was here. One gentleman, a delegate to the international Sunday school convention at Atlanta, was shivering in a chill, and begged piteously for a step-ladder on which he might get down from his watery perch. Dry bedding was obtained for them, and the sleepers were made comparatively comfortable.

In Chattanooga, chimneys were blown down shade and fruit trees broken up, houses unroofed, and gates and fences twisted. Among other things, a number of small cabins were blown down in the first ward, and others injured.

The tin roofs of two buildings connected with the Roane iron company's works were torn off, damaging the company in the neighborhood of 1,000.

The tin roof of the Alabama and Great Southern depot was totally ruined and almost entirely dislodged—damage $900.

Mr O H P Wayne's new brick building, on Montgomery avenue, was unroofed, damaging him about $400.

John Gostin's brick building on Market street, just beyond the crossing, was damaged to the extent of about $100.

The front doors of Ashley's tin store, on Ninth street, were blown in, and the contents of the room broken and displaced—damage about $100.

A portion of the brick in the front of Joseph Ruohs' building on Market, between Sixth and Seventh streets, was blown off—damage about fifty dollars.

Bishop Marvin's Book

We have received a copy of "To the East by Way of the West," by the late lamented Bishop Enoch M. Marvin, of the Southern Methodist church. The volume is published by the Advocate Publishing house, of St. Louis, and is gotten up in fine style with illustrations. It is sent post paid on receipt of $2.

The book contains an account of the eastern travels of Bishop Marvin, which were concluded only a short time before his death. His observations are given in clear and beautiful style, and the book is a permanent and valuable contribution to the literature of travel.

Dr Talmage's Lecture.

Next Thursday night Dr. Talmage, the famous Presbyterian divine, will deliver his famous lecture on "The Bright Side of Things," at the opera house. for the benefit of the First Presbyterian church.

The lecture is one of the choicest that is delivered from the American rostrum. A fine audience will greet it here.

—Gov. Colquitt went to Macon last night. He will deliver the Memorial address there to-day.

REPENTANT M'LIN.

OVERREACHED PERJURY IN TEARS.

Evidence from All Sides—The Case in Washington—Efforts to Smirch the Penitents.

Special Dispatch to the Constitution.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., April 25, '78.

Affidavits regarding the election frauds are coming in now from various quarters and fully already made. There is very little work going on now, the unexpected disclosures having practically put an end to it for the present. The case

ESTABLISH THE EXPOSURES

IS NOW IN WASHINGTON,

the papers having all been forwarded there, and Dennis having gone. Some of the statements that are being made now, are full of

DETAILS OF STARTLING FRAUDS.

There are still more to come. Some of the prominent democrats appear to-day to be of the presidential case, and others are anxious that Tilden should go in at any cost. There is considerable anxiety among some of the republicans as to the result of the exposures.

OPPOSED TO THE OPENING

THE CASE IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Regarding the confessions of McLin and Dennis of the election frauds in Florida, in 1876, Montgomery Blair says he had information some time ago, that such confessions were to be or had been made. He and others were

UNABLE TO CONJECTURE

where the original papers containing the confessions are to be found, if they have, as stated, been sent to Washington. General Finley, who contests the seat of Bisbee of the second district of Florida, says that the revelations made by McLin and Dennis accord with the proofs he has gathered in support of his claims to the seat. Much interest is excited by the statement that McLin and Dennis confessed to frauds in the Florida election vote, and, during the day correspondents of the press and others have been seeking for further information on the subject

THE ORIGINAL PAPERS

have not been received, although several democrats and republicans say that they are acquainted with the contents. A republican of prominence authorizes the statement, which he says he will prove that Alfred Morton, formerly a postoffice agent, but who was dismissed by President Hayes, was employed by certain parties to go to Florida to obtain information, which could be used in aid of the proceedings of the house judiciary committee on the Blair resolutions; that the statement of McLin is for having, it is alleged, betrayed the republican party; that if certain facts, of which he is now informed by Dennis, had been known to the canvassing board at the time of the count, the electoral vote of Florida would have been cast for Tilden instead of Hayes, but that they honestly made his record according to the facts as they then appeared. This republicans think that Dennis has made no statement, but, on the contrary, a democratic member of congress says he has. It said that at the White House is that he came on to Washington, last summer in quest of a place under the government. The president nominated him at the extra session for the judgeship of the Territory of New Mexico. His nomination not being acted on at that session, it was sent in at the beginning of the regular session, and was rejected. McLin came again to the president, who informed him that he could do nothing for him. To send in his name for any position under the government would only be inviting defeat. Both of the senators from Florida and Senator Spencer fought McLin's nomination while it was before the senate.

CONDEMNATORY OF PRESIDENT HAYES

M'LIN'S RECORD

DENNIS

was made internal revenue agent for the Alachua county district, notwithstanding the fact that a number of indictments were pending against him in connection with the frauds of the Archer precinct and elsewhere. The office of revenue agent was not large enough to satisfy Dennis for the work he had done, and he therefore turned against the administration. There is much speculation as to the parties who procured the admission of fraud, some persons positively asserting that they were friends of Tilden, while others name prominent republicans, disaffected towards president Hayes, as thus concerned.

THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

Its Meeting in Atlanta Next Week.

Next Wednesday one of the largest and most influential religious bodies in the world will meet in our city, and hold its sessions in the First Methodist church, which will be completed by that day.

This large body will represent thirty-seven district conferences and over six hundred thousand members. It will number over three hundred and fifty delegates clerical and lay, among whom will be some of the ablest divines and leading citizens of the whole south.

Such is the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church south, which will soon be in our midst

There are nearly three thousand Methodists in Atlanta, and they have made preparations for the entertainment of this large body. Citizens of all creeds and denominations will join in the effort to make these visitors at home, and have gladly volunteered to throw open their doors and entertain them

Besides the delegates, the conference will attract hundreds of visitors from all parts of the south, who will attend the important proceedings of this great body. Atlanta will thus be the center of interest for the Methodists of the entire south for some time to come.

Delegates will begin to arrive in the city by Sunday, and by Wednesday there will be a full attendance. The session will probably last as the body will have only one session a day and will have to discuss many questions of great importance will come up. Among these will be the election of two or three new bishops. A number of the ablest divines in the church are urged for these important and honorable stations.

The proceedings of such a body will be of interest to the general public as they will be directed by some of the ablest and most brilliant men in the country. Full reports of the proceedings will appear each day in THE CONSTITUTION.

—John A. Gentry was yesterday commissioned justice of the peace in and for the 6 8th district, G. M., Henry county.

We invite the attention of our readers specially to the advertisement of THE INDEX AND BAPTIST, which appears in another column, and take great pleasure in commending this sterling Religious journal to the Baptists of Georgia, and to all others who may desire a first-class paper in all essential respects. THE INDEX AND BAPTIST is one of the oldest and ablest papers of its denomination, and is eminently worthy a generous support. The terms of subscription are so extremely liberal that it is within the reach of all. It should be the pride of every Baptist to patronize this paper which serves the denomination with so much fidelity and ability, and we trust it will find in its enlarged patronage the merited reward of its able and faithful labors.

The Rev. J. F. Reeves, who is well and favorably known in this community, is now canvassing this city in behalf of THE INDEX. The proprietors commend him to the public generally, and particularly to the various churches of Atlanta, and will highly esteem any courtesies that may be shown him in connection with his present mission. Mr. Reeves will offer detailed explanations of terms, premiums, etc. The present is an auspicious period for securing this valuable paper at cheap rates, and, as it is the organ of the denomination in Georgia, we think it should go to the home of every Baptist in the State.

SECRETARY THOMPSON.

His View of the Officeholders' Order—The Attempt to Reopen the Presidential Question.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 25.—The Indianapolis News publishes an interview with Secretary Thompson, who is in the city, relative to a dispatch from Washington, published in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat of yesterday, in which it is stated that in a conversation between General Campbell, of Pennsylvania, and the president, the latter said that there could be no reasonable objection to officers in the civil service bureau contributing a reasonable share of their income to campaign purposes; that he would be pleased to have them do so, and that the president himself expected to CONTRIBUTE HIS PROPORTION.

Secretary Thompson declined to say anything that would appear like a statement of the president's views, but thought the dispatch above alluded to gives a fair interpretation of the office-holders order. The explanations are the same as those given in Attorney General Devens' letter of last October, that if a man

CHOOSE TO CONTRIBUTE HIS MONEY

he can; and if he chooses not to he can, and the president would sustain any man in such refusal. Whatever is done clandestinely cannot be controlled, nor is the president supposed to be able to follow all the ramifications of a rule to the lowest clerk in any part of the country, and if any case of attempted compulsion in the matter of contributions were brought to the president's notice, he would sustain that office holder with all the force of his power. With regard to the secretary said he knew nothing about it. He had got the navy department in a shape to suit him, and proposed to keep it so.

HIS PROPOSED RESIGNATION,

When questioned as to the attempts of the democrats to raise the question of

THE PRESIDENT'S TITLE,

Secretary Thompson said: "Oh, I think there is no question there to raise. I think the democrats want to get some official expression on record, so as to use it for campaign purposes. I see nothing more that they can accomplish than that. The talk of fraud in no way touches the presidential title. The questions for the court to decide would be, was there an electoral commission? Was it constructed according to law? Did it perform its duties? There is no dispute on these points, and unless the charge of fraud could be brought against the electoral commission itself, there would be nothing in any way touching the title. Whatever fraud there might be back of the jurisdiction of the electoral commission in no wise touches its work The democrats only hope to make campaign capital, and I think nothing will be done on the subject by congress."

EXPRESSMEN'S AID SOCIETY

Third Day of the Meeting at New Orleans—Changes in the Constitution and By-laws.

NEW ORLEANS, April 25.—The Expressmen's Aid society, to-day, discussed the proposed amendments to the constitution and by-laws. The majority report was adopted, with the following amendments:

First article—Amended so as to admit females to the benefit of the society.

Second article—That the membership be divided into two classes, designated as A and B, and that all worthy expressmen, who may be suitable subjects for insurance, may become of either or both classes. After much discussion on this clause, it was finally decided to refer the matter back to the committee for future consideration.

Fourth article—Amended by the additional phrase, "the president, when requested by a majority of the executive committee, may call a meeting of the society."

Fifth article—That the word annual be stricken out and the words "of the society" added. Adopted. In all cases where the word "annual" occurred, it was ordered that the word "regular" be substituted.

Ninth article—That the words "preceding regular," be substituted for "annual" so that the article shall read: "Its regular meetings shall be held on the third Wednesday in April of each alternate year, and the locality be determined at the preceding regular meeting." Adopted.

The amendment to the tenth article makes a radical change in the manner of electing delegates to the convention, and was recommitted to the attention of the committee as was the eleventh article.

The amendments to the by-laws were next considered. After much discussion, the roll of ayes and nays was called on adopting an amendment to the committee's amendment to the last paragraph of the first article, determining the length of service in the express service which will entitle expressmen to membership in the society, and resulted in a vote of 35 for to 32 against. The amended amendment of this article was then adopted.

A tribute to the memory of the late Alvin Adams, founder of the Adams Express company, was offered by Mr. Osborne, of Mobile, and adopted. It expresses exalted esteem and appreciation of his high character, personal virtues and profound feeling of sorrow at the loss occasioned by his death.

The president stated that in consequence of the death of President Orton, of the Western Union telegraph company, between which service and the express company, had always existed a pleasant intimacy, he would call for the reading of resolutions already prepared, expressive of the high esteem in which William Orton was held by the association.

Mr. H. B. Plant, president of the Southern Express company, rose and paid a high tribute to the memory of the deceased president.

The motion to adopt was then carried, with an additional motion that a copy of the resolutions be sent to the vice president of the Western Union telegraph company.

THE MEXICAN STIR-ABOUT.

The Lerdists Moving for the Deposition of Diaz.

NEW YORK, April 25.—A special from San Antonio, Texas, says: The better class of Mexicans in this city are very much excited over Mexican affairs, and all are in sympathy with the contemplated movement against Diaz.

The presence of Gen. Escobedo in Galveston, and the various telegrams he is sending to different parts of the state, indicate business of a serious nature

Col. Paul John T. Machana, now here yesterday received a commission as brigadier general from Lerdo. It is said that this officer and Escobedo are procuring arms and munitions for the Lerdists. Great secrecy is maintained, but enough can be seen here to warrant the belief that a great rebellion will soon occur in Mexico at no distant day.

The Commercial Convention.

MOBILE, April 25.—The commercial convention met here to-day. Ex Gov James M Smith, of Georgia, was elected president Sixty delegates were present, from Selma, Rome, Ga Eufaula, Columbus, Ga Montgomery, Birmingham Nashville, Pensacola, Marion, Uniontown, and from several railroads and corporations. Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis delegations have not yet arrived, the train on the M & O R R being detained by the storm. Papers were read by Mr Chas Nathan, of New Orleans, on the resources of the West Indies and Spanish America. The convention went on an excursion to Arlington, this evening,

An Escaped Convict in the Ohio Assembly.

COLUMBUS, April 25—In the house a resolution was adopted for the investigation of the charge against Representative O'Connor that he was an inmate of the Michigan penitentiary and never pardoned.

In the senate a resolution was adopted appointing a commissioner to ascertain whether any member of the 62d or 63d assembly had improperly received money to influence their votes on the bill authorizing $6 000 000 to be applied to the Cincinnati Southern railroad.

SUNDAY TALK IN LAGRANGE.

SECOND DAY OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL COUNCIL.

Entertaining Speeches and Entrancing Music—Adjournment—The State Baptist Convention.

Special Dispatch to the Constitution.

LAGRANGE, GA., April 25.

The exercises of the second day's session of the Sunday school institute were opened with devotional exercises by Rev. Mr. Ryall and Rev. Mr. Murrow, missionary to the Indians.

Rev. Dr. Gwin moved that representatives of the press and visiting brethren be invited to seats on the floor. Carried.

MR. C B. STOUT

was now introduced to speak upon "Sunday School Workers' Implements." He said there were some implements which needed only to be enumerated and not discussed, since they are of such universally conceded importance, viz: The holy spirit and the word of God. Then we need communion and association with each other. Fourthly, a Sunday school teacher needs sunshine. An implement implies an aim, and if a Sunday school teacher aims at nothing, he generally hits it. He then enumerated and discussed the following helps and aids: A marginal Bible, a paragraph Bible, versions, a complete concordance, cyclopedias and Bible dictionaries, maps, tables, pictures, objects, slates and black boards. He thought a teacher should have a note book in which to jot down ideas and suggestions on the lessons. He illustrated on the black board the opening and closing exercises of the schools, accompanying the illustration with words of caustic criticism and profitable suggestiveness.

At the close of Mr. Stout's remarks Professor Sherwin rose and explained the history of the song entitled "More to Follow," following up the explanation by singing most sweetly the song. Dr. Thomas E. Skinner was then called upon and led in prayer for the welfare of the Sunday school work in Georgia.

DR. PELTZ WAS THEN INTRODUCED, and spoke upon the "Sunday school worker's plans and methods." He began by saying that the plans of a military leader sent to reduce a fortress, would depend largely upon the character of the fort, growing out of the necessities of gathering in pupils, of minding their interest, love and enthusiasm, of cultivating them religiously, morally, socially and intellectually, of converting the children to God; a Sunday school teacher should first secure the co-operation of the parents 2nd, He is to teach the children. "Under this head I put the emphasis on how shall I best teach the children? I reply in the first place—be taught yourself." Unconverted men and women should not be teachers; secondly, be apt to teach. The manual sign of the mutes to convey the idea of teaching, is to take an idea from one brain and put it in another. You are to be apt to teach by learning from normal classes; by acquisition of special matter from the uniform lesson helps, and from your own ideas; by a teachers' meeting, wherein as great a variety of lesson helps are to be used as possible.

At the close of this most interesting and sensible address, Prof. Sherwin sang

"Beautiful valley of Eden," prefacing it with a beautiful tribute, to "The sunny land and bright skies of the south."

Mr. Stout then gave the boys of the LaGrange high school a most impressive lecture on Life, accompanied with black board illustrations. By the way, the LaGrange high school, under Profs. Huntley and Graves is no mean institution. It has, perhaps, no superior in Georgia

At the close of the lecture Rev. T C Boykin made an appeal to the audience, and many arose for prayer. Dr. DeVotie then led the organization in a most earnest petition. Prof. Sherwin sang "Beautiful River," the congregation responding in the refrain, "Yes, we'll gather at the river." The doxology was sung, the benediction was pronounced, and the meeting adjourned to meet again at 2½ o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The exercises were opened with devotional services by Rev Mr McCall. Dr Skinner was introduced and spoke with great force on "The Sunday-school Workers' Inspiration and Motive." We give a synopsis below of this excellent address. Yet it is not fair to judge of its merit by a mere skeleton without flesh, blood, complexion or expression of countenance. The doctor said: "In the International convention frequent reference was made to antediluvian and post-diluvian genealogies. I am at this time a post-prando-diluvian, that is a man after a flood of dinner. It will perhaps contribute no little to the sluggishness of my thought and the feebleness of your interest. I cannot discuss this theme in detail within the thirty minutes allowed me. What I shall say I base upon the two passages, "Search the scriptures," and "He expounded unto them in all the scriptures concerning himself."

The inspiration is the study of the scriptures. The motive is, to expound the things concerning Christ for the glory of God and the salvation of souls. Bible school is a better name for the work.

1. "Concerning Himself"—all about Christ—what are some of the things to be taught about him?

(a.) The divinity of Christ's nature and mission.

(b.) The absolute indispensability of Christ's work for man, as the divine messenger of heaven.

2. The great duty of the teacher is to explain the scriptures in connection with Christ and in contradiction to the peculiar rites of religious sects.

AXIOMS.

1. The only true student and teacher of the Bible is he who discerns the Christ of the Bible.

2. The only real believer in the Bible is he who believes in the Christ of the Bible.

3. The only true teacher is he who teaches the Christ of the Bible. Men want Christ, not theories about Christ. Starving men want bread, not the chemistry of bread.

LESSONS TAUGHT BY THE SCRIPTURES.

1. The Sunday school worker's inspiration and motive fully realized, will prove the true interpreters of the difference between disciples.

2. The unification of disciples will be effected.

3. It will lift up infant baptism to a level with a converted church, and bring down adult baptism into union with child conversion.

Prof Sherwin sang "The Ninety and Nine," and followed the singing with a lecture as to the proper handling and possession of the Bible.

PROF. VAN LENNEP

stood up in his Turkish costume, and addressed the meeting on orientalisms. After this the doxology was sung, the benediction pronounced, and the meeting adjourned to meet at NIGHT SESSION.

The services were commenced with devotional exercises by Rev Mr Edmunds of Michigan.

THE REV. DR. WHARTON

addressed the meeting on "Sunday-school Possibilities in Georgia—What mistakes are to be avoided." This was the finest speech we have heard and we decline to do injustice to the speaker and violence to the spoken, by attempting a synopsis of it in this report.

The whole services of the evening were made specially interesting by the singing of Prof Sherwin, and addresses of good-bye by the northern and western brethren. The rendition of the poem of Alice Carey, on "Rock of Ages" by Prof Sherwin, deserves special mention for its superior excellency.

REV D. E BUTLER

made one of his own entertaining Butlerisms, in response to the farewell speeches of the northern brethren. The meeting then adjourned in form The convention proper opens to day. The opening sermon is to be preached at 11 o'clock, by Rev H C Hornaday, of Senoria, Georgia.

OBSERVER.

A Bad Fit.

TORONTO, April 25—John Holmes, boot and shoe manufacturer, has made an assignment. Liabilities, $75,000.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Negotiations Still Progressing—The Two Sick Statesmen Recovering.

LONDON, April 25.—It is definitely decided that the duke of Edinburg shall remain in the Mediterranean.

A GROWING BELIEF.

The growing belief in failure of mediation in the eastern troubles continues to depress the stock markets There has been a general fall in prices. Russian securities are down another cent. The negotiations regarding the congress and the withdrawal of the British fleet and Russian troops from near Constantinople had no result. It is considered very unfortunate that Prince Bismarck and Prince Gortschakoff have fallen ill at this critical juncture. In the uncertainty of issue of the negotiations the Russians to strengthen their position, and and advices from various sources concur that there are considerable movements of troops toward Constantinople as well as Gallipoli. According to a letter in the Vienna Political Correspondence from Tchaldja, about thirty miles northwest from Constantinople, two thousand sappers and eight thousand infantry are at work there turning and completing the lines thrown up by the Turks along the whole line from Hademkoi to Derkos on the Black sea. Four smaller redoubts have been enlarged and five new ones constructed. There still remain a good many of the siege guns belonging to the Turks. These are far from sufficient to arm the extended works, but one hundred heavy guns and thirty mortars are expected to arrive from Odessa.

ARE DOING THEIR BEST

A DENIAL.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 25.—Now it is certain that the circular which it was stated on the 12th inst. had been sent by the porte to its representatives abroad recognizing the San Stefano treaty as a result of war, and expressing the determination to loyally carry out its terms, but at the same time saying the porte would regard as opportune any modification which might be made, and pledging the porte to carry out the projected reform, was not sent out by the porte, nor is any circular whatever regarding the San Stefano treaty to be issued.

RUSSIAN PREPARATION.

The Russians have established a telegraph line between San Stefano and St George, a few miles north, and are now constructing roads. The Turkish Seraskierate has received information that the insurrection in Romelia is spreading There has been another engagement, in which 30 officers, presumably Russians, has been placed hors du combat. Three thousand prisoners of war from Bucharest landed at Constantinople on Wednesday. The return of prisoners from Russia has been postponed until their maintenance is paid for.

THE INTERCHANGE OF OPINIONS.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 25.—The Agence Russe announces that the negotiations continue in a friendly manner by the intimate intercourse of the cabinet. The Agence denies that invitations to the congress have been sent to the powers, or that they have been even framed, as that will be the task of the preliminary conference. There will also be before the congress meets an exchange of views between the cabinets upon the principal questions at issue. England demands more than an acknowledgement of the European character of the questions raised by the recent affirmative of such acknowledgement.

THE SICK STATESMEN.

LONDON, April 25.—A Reuter dispatch from Berlin states that Prince Bismarck's illness does not appear to be dangerous. His malady is taking its usual course. His speedy recovery is expected.

A Reuter dispatch from St Petersburg says that Prince Gortschakoff is much better. His fever has disappeared, and he is now only suffering from weakness

THE FEDERAL FOCUS.

The Bankrupt Repeal Passes the House—A Speech by Mr. Bell, etc.

THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 25—Mr. Johnston, of Virginia, presented the petition of Thomas L. Moore, of Virginia, for the removal of his political disabilities. Referred to committee on judiciary.

The president pro tem. laid before the senate a communication from the secretary of the treasury, in answer to the senate resolution of January 15, calling for information in regard to the amount of government bonds sold since March 4th, 1861; the amount paid to syndicates for placing them in the market, &c. Ordered printed and referred to the committee on finance. Also, a communication from the post master general in regard to deficiencies in the appropriations for that department during the current year. Referred to the committee on appropriations.

Mr. Butler, of South Carolina, submitted resolutions calling on the secretary of war for any information he may have concerning the practicability and cost of improving the ship channel at the entrance of the harbor of Charleston, S C. Agreed to

The senate bill for the relief of Gibbes & Co., of Charleston, S C, was passed, Adjourned to Monday.

THE HOUSE.

The session was consumed almost entirely by the discussion of the senate bill repealing the bankrupt act, which finally passed with very slight amendments.

Schleicher, of Texas, submitted the report of the committee on foreign affairs in regard to the Mexican border troubles. Referred to the committee of the whole.

Acklin, of Louisiana, asked leave to offer a resolution for the appointment of a committee of three to investigate the charges against Special Agent Carter in regard to recent log seizures in Louisiana. Kellinger, of Pennsylvania, objected.

Mr Muldrow of Mississippi discussed the tariff bill at length. He criticised the difference between the bill and the speech of Mr. Wood, and showed how far it was below the democratic tariff of R. J. Walker, and how it failed to relieve agriculture from the cruel discriminations of the present tariff. He would only support Wood's bill as a choice of evils. Mr. Bell of Georgia, in an able speech in favor of the postal saving bill, showed that under the operations of this bill the foreign debt might be refunded at a lower rate of interest and held by our own people, in place of foreign syndicates.

THE SYNDICATE.

George Bliss, before the committee on banking and currency, stated that he was a member of the syndicate. The syndicate had purchased $10 000,000 of 4½ per cents. outright. The option to take more would cease when the syndicate failed to take $5,000,000 per month. Bliss saw nothing to prevent specie payments after the first of January. He thinks England and France will facilitate the measure for resumption.

Campbell gave a reception to the secretary of war to-night, which was attended by all the officers at the post, and was a very brilliant affair

SMITH'S APPOINTMENT

Smith's managers propose to keep him in committee for ten days or two weeks, in order to make his path straight

There is a strong disposition, as a matter of heroic poetry and political equity, to thrust Packard down the president's throat.

The house is considering the repeal of the bankrupt act.

LEO XIII.

He Ratifies the Theories of Pius IX.

ROME, April 25.—An encyclical just issued by the pope points out that it is wrong for society to combat the church, and the Roman pontificate especially, regarding the latter's civil principality, which is a guarantee of its liberty and independence. The pope renews and confirms the protest of Pius IX. against the occupation of this civil principality of the church. His holiness is confident that with the aid of God and the zeal of the pastors, society will finally return to the homage it owes to the church. The encyclical is generally moderate and full of expressions of affection towards society.

Hard Times Ahead.

MANCHESTER, April 25.—Nearly all the operative at Burnley whose notices expired last evening have joined the strike. Thousands of idlers at Blackburn are wandering the streets and some of them are becoming clamorous for the strike pay.

The Russian Flotilla

MOSCOW, April 25.—A large meeting, Governor General Prince Dalgarukoff presiding, resolved that each province should furnish one cruiser for the Russian war flotilla.

Heart Disease.

NEW YORK, April 25.—F. R. Grote, the oldest grain broker on 'Change, died suddenly of heart disease this morning.

Gone Home.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Ex-Governor Packard left here last night. He was called to New Orleans by family sickness.

Exportation of Gold

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Wieland, which sailed for Hamburg, took out $600 000 in gold.

Lost.

LONDON, April 25.—In a violent gale a Turkish corvette was sunk, with ninety lives lost.

"COVER THEM OVER."

Cover them over with beautiful flowers,
Deck them with garlands, those brothers of ours,
Lying so silent, by night and by day,
Sleeping the years of their manhood away.
Years they had marked for the joys of the brave;
Years they must waste in the mouldering grave.
All the bright laurels they waited to bloom
Fell from their hopes when they fell from the tomb.
Give them the meed they have won in the past;
Give them the honors their future forecast;
Give them the chaplets they won in the strife,
Give them the laurels they lost with their life.
Cover them over—yes, cover them over—
Parent, husband, brother and lover!
Crown in your hearts those dead heroes of ours,
And cover them over with beautiful flowers.

Cover the faces that motionless lie,
Shut from the blue of the glorious sky,
Faces once decked with the smiles of the gay,
Faces now marked with the frown of decay;
Eyes that looked friendship and love to your own,
Lips that the thoughts of affection made known;
Brows you have soothed in the hour of distress,
Cheeks you have brightened by tender caress.
Oh! how they gleamed at the nation's first cry!
Oh! how they streamed when they bade you good-bye!
Oh! how they gleamed in the battle's fierce flame!
Oh! how they paled when the death-angel came!
Cover them over; oh, cover them over,
Parent, husband, brother and lover!
Kiss in your hearts those dead heroes of ours,
And cover them over with beautiful flowers.

Cover their hands that are lying untried,
Crossed on the bosom and low by the side,
Hands to you, mother, in fancy shown;
Hands by you, father, clasped close to your own;
Hands where you, sister, when tried and dismayed,
Hung for protection and counsel and aid;
Hands that you, brother, in loyalty knew;
Hands that you, wife, wrung in bitter adieu.
Bravely the musket and sabre they bore,
Words of affection they wrote on their gore.
Grandly they grasped for a garland of light,
Catching the mantle of death-darkened night.
Cover them over; oh, cover them over,
Parent, husband and brother and lover!
Crown in your hearts those heroes of ours,
And cover them over with beautiful flowers.
Cover the feet, that, all weary and torn,
Hither by comrades were tenderly borne,
Feet that have trodden the flowery ways
Close by your own in the old happy days;
Feet that have pressed in life's opening morn
Roses of pleasure and death's poisoned thorn.
Swiftly they rushed to the help of the right,
Firmly they stood in the shock of the fight.
Ne'er shall the enemy's hurrying tramp
Summon them forth from their death-guarded camp;
Ne'er till the bugle of Gabriel sound
Will they come out of their couch in the ground.
Cover them over; yes, cover them over,
Parent, husband, brother and lover!
Rough were the paths of those heroes of ours—
Now cover them over with beautiful flowers.
Cover the hearts that have beaten so high,
Beaten with hopes that were doomed but to die,
Hearts that have burned in the heat of the fray,
Hearts that have yearned for the homes far away,
Hearts that beat high in the charge's loud tramp,
Hearts that fell low in the prison's foul damp.
Once they were swelling with courage and will;
Now they are lying all pulseless and still.
Once they were glowing with friendship and love;
Now their great souls have gone soaring above.
Bravely their blood to the nation they gave!
Then in her bosom they found them a grave.
Cover them over; yes, cover them over,
Parent and husband, brother and lover!
Kiss in your hearts those dead heroes of ours,
And cover them over with beautiful flowers

Cover the thousands who sleep far away,
Sleep where their friends cannot find them to-day,
They who in mountain and hillside and dell
Rest where they wearied and lie where they fell.
Softly the grass-blades creep round their repose,
Sweetly above them the wild flowret blows.
Zephyrs of freedom fly gently o'erhead,
Whispering prayers for the patriot dead.
So in our mind we'll name them once more,
So in our hearts we'll cover them o'er.
Roses and lilies and violets blue
Bloom in our souls for the brave and true.
Cover them over; yes, cover them over,
Parent, husband, brother and lover!
Think of those far-away heroes of ours,
And cover them over with beautiful flowers.
When the long years have rolled slowly away,
E'en to the dawn of earth's funeral day,
When at the archangel's trumpet and tread
Rise up the faces and forms of the dead,
When the great world its last judgment awaits,
When the blue sky shall swing open its gates,
And our long columns march silently through,
Past the Great Captain [illegible] final review.
Then from the blood that has flowed for the right
Crowns shall spring upward, untarnished and bright;
Then the glad ears of each war-martyred son
Proudly shall hear the good tidings, "well done."
Blessings for garlands shall cover them over,
Parent and husband and brother and lover.
God will reward those dead heroes of ours,
And cover them over with beautiful flowers.

Georgia Military Institute—The Old Capitol.

SAVANNAH, GA., April 23, 1878.

EDITORS CONSTITUTION: I beg, through your widely circulated journal, to call attention to the following from the Dublin Gazette:

"Before our state property at Milledgeville goes to decay, let us reorganize the Georgia military institute, and locate it there. Certainly this suggestion will touch a responsive chord in the hearts of many, who are now living, who went to that school, and would touch many others if they were not now sleeping on "fame's eternal camping ground" Georgians, we were once proud of that institute of military training. Why can't we have it again?"

There could be no more timely suggestion than this. The people of Georgia have declared, by a vote of great unanimity, that Atlanta shall henceforth be its seat of state government, and the magnificent buildings crowning the heights of Milledgeville are to be left comparatively unoccupied, to be preyed on by the destructive tooth of time, until this legacy of our fathers, sacred by so many memories of better times and grand old men, shall decay and crumble into shapeless ruins, marking alike our want of wisdom and of right appreciation of the times and the men.

The perfect adaptation of the buildings and the beautiful verdant grounds surrounding them to the purpose proposed will forcibly impress all who are acquainted with them. And I am satisfied it will only be necessary to circulate the proposition among the people to excite a public sentiment that would be speedily developed in efficient action.

Who that remembers the institution at Marietta, destroyed by ruthless hands—the thoroughly trained and gallant men it set forth—a blessing in peace, and a glory in war—and thinks of the importance of preparing for the wonderful future, true men on whom the mantle of these heroes, so rapidly passing away, shall fall, but will feel enthusiastic in his desire to witness the reorganization of the Georgia military institute. The success of this and similar schools, in developing both the intellectual and physical man, ought to be considered. Many men educated in our colleges and universities, who could be giants in the literary world, if the "outer man" were properly developed, are doomed to be but wrecks, in body and mind, for want of the proper exercise so abundantly afforded by the duties and training of a military institute. We owe it to our boys—almost the only jewels we have left—to afford them the best possible means of intellectual training; and it may be that some of the graduates of the old institute who distinguished themselves by their bravery and thorough acquaintance with military affairs—led the honored commands of our state through the fearful scenes of the late terrible war, or fell with their faces to the foe—honored martyrs to rights dearer than life—may have left sons who are worthy descendants of noble sires—inheriting their talents and their virtues—surely it were a grateful privilege to open to them the doors of an institution where all their powers may be developed. With the tender of this humble tribute to a worthy cause, I hope that the "ball" thus "set in motion" shall be moved on until the work is completed.

The Paris Exposition.

The attention of all who contemplate visiting the Exposition to be opened in Paris about the middle of May, is requested to the facilities offered by the Anchor Line of Steamships, sailing direct to London or Glasgow, making close connection with all routes for the continent The ships are new, of the most improved model and contain all the latest devices for the safety and comfort of passengers, and are officered by the most skillful and experienced navigators. The Passenger accommodations are unsurpassed, being first class in every particular, and the cuisine is conducted on the most scientific and liberal scale.

An advertisement in another column gives particulars as to rates of passage, &c.

Agricultural Steam Works.

Steam power, as now applied to farming operations, has become indispensable, and the Southern farmer must, as a measure of economy, convenience, expedition and independence, adapt this motive power if he desires to derive the benefits of an early market, or place himself in competition with those of more advanced ideas, The general advantages of steam power as applied to farming purposes are so various that no enlightened planter can afford to dispense with it.

It is gratifying to observe that the iron manufacturers of the South are applying themselves so energetically in supplying the requirements of the planter in this particular. Among the most notable stands the extensive and reliable establishment of Wm. E. Tanner & Co, at Richmond, Va. This concern has a wide reputation for its agricultural and saw mill engines, which are of the most superior quality and efficiency, as hundreds of planters throughout the South can testify

It behooves our planters to look to their interest, and also to patronise Southern manufacturers

Memorial Day.

ATLANTA, GA., April 24th, 1878.

To the Hon. N. L. Angier, Mayor:

The ladies of the Memorial Association respectfully request you to issue a proclamation requesting all the merchants to close their places of business at 2 o'clock, Friday, April 26th, in honor of our Confederate dead.

Also, please give positive instructions to Mr Holland, Sexton, closing the gates of the Cemetery to all carriages after 10 o'clock on the same day.

Respectfully,
COMMITTEE L. M. A.

Proclamation by the Mayor.
MEMORIAL DAY.

As an offering of our kind regards for the virtues, and to the memory of those brave sons of the South who sacrificed their lives to a cause dear to them, and to the chivalrous heart throbs that found a ready response all over this country, and that all may have an opportunity of paying their devotions to a cause made sacred by so much suffering and so many sacrifices, it is most earnestly desired and requested that all business in the city be suspended after two o'clock p. m., on Memorial Day, Friday, the 26th instant.

And the City Sexton is hereby directed not to permit any carriages to enter the City Cemetery after ten o'clock a. m. on that day.

The depreciation of the currency in Havana continues, although the reports show a cessation of hostilities. Owing to the bad condition of Spanish finances generally, this depreciation is likely to increase. The Havana Lottery tickets sold here for American money, when a prize is won, only pay about thirty cents, gold, on the dollar, and this fact has caused a great demand for the tickets of the celebrated Louisiana State Lottery Company, the President of which is M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692. New Orleans, La See the particulars in another column.

An Astonishing Fact

A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent.

ATLANTA GA.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 26, 1878

IT is charged that the Rev. Joseph Cook was born in Boston.

THE indications are that the contest over the management of the Georgia road will be an unusually warm one.

As the end man of a syndicate, John Sherman is not a pronounced success. He will probably do [illegible] as he grows older.

IT is stated that the Conkling interview has destroyed the influence of that eminent statesman in congress. This is a terrible blow to the country.

IT is said that old Hannibal Hamlin took his toddy quite freely when in Savannah. We were of the opinion that the old rooster had reformed.

SAMMY COX is evidently desirous of becoming the Sergeant Bates of congress. But, in the meantime, what is he going to do with his cap and bells?

THE Swainesboro Herald pays a deserved tribute to the energy and ability of Judge Henry B. Tompkins, of the eastern circuit.

WE haven't heard of old man Evarts in several days. He is probably out in his back yard constructing a new platform for the radical party.

SECOR ROBINSON, Grant's secretary of the navy, spent nearly $8,000,000 in violation of law. The old wretch ought to be exiled.

AN exchange says Woodhull is married to a merchant. She may have taken another husband, but is she really married? If so, where is Col. Blood?

WHEN the Turks were in power in Bulgaria they massacred the Christians, and now that the Christians are in power they are preparing to massacre the Turks. It is evidently a case of dog eat dog.

THE New York papers are getting courteous again. The Times tells the Tribune that it lies. If Horace Greeley were alive, he would remark in his fervid way that the Times was bought with British gold.

THE New York World's travesty was so exceedingly neat—so little overdone—that some of the papers really believe the Rev. Joseph Cook delivered a lecture on the Ahkoond of Swat. But these papers are chiefly edited in the west.

WE want to be around when Frederick Conkling attempts to give General Gordon his promised "stirring up." It is to be hoped Fred will send out invitations. We know lots of people in this section who would like to see the fun.

MRS BANNISTER rails at the papers for connecting her name with the Michigan bishop. Mrs. Bannister is known in the scandal as Fanny Richards, and she makes a much more emphatic denial than Mrs. Tilton did—a denial that she will probably stick to.

COL. SUSAN B. ANTHONY will soon start on her one hundred and eighty-ninth annual lecture tour. They say the sprightly old girl is using vermilion on her alabaster cheeks for the first time since the Rev. Joseph Cook ought to have been assassinated by the Boston canibals.

MR. GLOVER says the Tribune's story to the effect that his investigating committee had caught a crooked democrat, is a pure fabrication. The proper course for the Tribune to pursue—at least the one it is most likely to pursue—is to repeat the story with thrilling additions.

SAM COX, J. Proctor Knott and Abe Hewitt, head the signers to the protest against the passage of the river and harbor appropriation bill. They make a very lovely trio, indeed—Sammy carrying the flag, Proctor speaking one of Pat Donan's editorial orations, and Abe flouting Mr. Tilden and the democratic party.

GENERAL BANKS wants to do now what he failed to do during the war—conquer the rebels. Banks was John Pope's only competitor when fighting was going on. In those times the southern papers used to say that Banks was really a confederate at heart for the reason that he played so conspicuously into the hands of our soldiers.

"SOME of the southern papers," regretfully remarks Billy Storey, of the Chicago Times, "are again spelling negro with two g's." Why should Billy thus attempt to fire the northern heart? If he will point to the southern paper that spells it neggro, we will lay down our arms and admit that a new rebellion is brewing. No, Billy. The southern papers spell nigger with two g's, just as they spell gizzard with two z's. It is the duty of Chicago papers to set an example of accuracy to the press of the country, and we regret to see our friend Billy falling into such an error.

SHERMAN'S SYNDICATE.

Washin ton dispatch says that John Sherman, in response to a request by the banking and currency committee of the house, has sent it a copy of his contract with the syndicate. It turns out that he has only sold ten millions. To effect this sale he gives the syndicate an option on the remaining forty millions to be taken by them or not, as they please, at the rate of five millions a month, from May to December. They can take each successive installment, or terminate the contract any month, as their interest may dictate. The secretary further binds himself not to sell any more bonds for redemption purposes this year without the syndicate's consent. So that if he should be offered gold for resumption in exchange for four per cents, he could not take it. The contract is like a jug-handle—all on one side. If the bonds advance, the option on the remaining $40,000,000 will be worth two or three million dollars to Belmont, Seligman, Rothschild & Co. If they don't advance, the syndicate can, at the worst, lose only a comparative trifle on the $10,000,000 they have absolutely bought.

THE CRIME OF FORCED RESUMPTION.

We are [illegible]ting where we can see and appreciate some of the results of John Sherman's forced resumption and the steady contraction that has been going on under the so-called resumption act. The circular prepared by the well-known commercial agency of R. G. Dunn & Co., has just been made public and from that documents, which may be regarded as official, it appears that the liabilities of bankrupts for the first quarter of 1878 exceed by $27,500,000 the liabilities for the corresponding quarter of 1877. The following are the figures:

STATES.	Liabilities. 1878.	1877.
Eastern states	$11,016,974	$ 6,798,408
Middle states	32,274,606	23,308,354
Southern states	11,699,029	6,666,391
Western states	25,014,081	15,545,393
Pacific states and territories	2,074,136	2,219,509
Total	$82,078,826	$54,538,070

If these startling figures hold good during the remainder of 1878, the whole year will foot up $328,715,304—all the result of the policy inaugurated by eastern and northern capitalists, and so eagerly carried out by John Sherman. With this showing before them will congress refuse to repeal the contraction bill now in force, and known as the resumption act?

A BLOODHOUND OF ZION.

It would appear that but for the northern Methodists, there would be a great dearth of truly loil patriots in this country. At a meeting of the Providence (R. I.) conference, recently, the Rev. Dr. Coggeshall, who is apparently desirous of out-Havening Gil Haven, made a political harrangue in which he waved the ensanguined undergarment in the most furious manner. He was blood-thirsty from the jump, as the boys say. The very Reverend Coggeshall spoke with the earnestness and enthusiasm of a man with the monkeys after him. He characterized the democracy as the party of obstructionists, seeking to destroy the country, in possession of the house of representative and soon to be in possession of the senate. They were composed of ex-slaveholders and ex-rebels and the entire Catholic element of the country, all the liquor interest, and all the criminal classes were in their ranks, and the party was precisely in the same spirit as it was in the days of Adams, Jefferson and Burr, beneath whose feet there was no depth of filth and infamy. In his opinion, it was the pulpit that saved the country in the revolutionary war and the late war, and it was only the pulpit that could save it now. Methodism, he declared, must come to the front again or all was lost. It is a puzzling species of piety that prompts such utterances as these. It is now Gil Haven's turn.

BROTHER ARNETT AS A MARTYR.

The frien dsof Brother Arnett, the colored delegate from Ohio, to the recent Sunday school convention, who refused to attend, are making a big fuss over a very small matter. That he did not attend the convention and take his seat is his own fault and nobody else's. Mr. Whidby, who carried on the correspondence that kept Arnett away from the convention, mistaking the temper of his own committee and of the convention, no doubt thought he was saving the colored man the mortification of having to face the refusal of the body to recognize his credentials. We have no doubt that Mr. Whidby's motives were of the best, but the fact remains that he had no authority to warn a duly elected delegate to remain away, even though he were a Bashi-Bazourk. If Arnett had intelligence enough to be a delegate, he knew Mr. Whidby was acting without authority, because he says as much in his letter, and the colored Ohican should have packed his credentials in a bandbox and tested the matter. It was not only his right but his duty, and in that event he would have taken his seat and nothing more would have been heard of him. Judging from the telegram we printed yesterday from Urbana, Brother Arnett is a healthy fraud. It is plain that he is endeavoring to make a martyr of himself, and that he has friends who are willing to make consummate asses of themselves for his benefit. A number of them held a meeting last Wednesday night and passed resolution which state that Arnett was refused a seat in the convention, by Secretary W. G. Whidby. This, if we understand the matter, is untrue. Mr. Whidby merely warned one of Arnett's friends that it would be well for the colored delegate to stay at home. The secretary had no right to refuse Arnett a seat, and if we read the correspondence correctly he did not go that far. We have already alluded to his action as unjustifiable, and we still hold to that opinion, but we are sure that the convention lost nothing by the absence of Brother Arnett. We shall be glad to chronicle the howlings of the loyal over this badly abused nigger.

GEORGIA IN CONGRESS.

Mr. Hill presented the petition of Alexander Moffit, of the District of Columbia, praying for compensation for the use and occupancy of his property, and for alleged damages thereto by United States military forces during the late war; which was referred to the committee on claims.

Upon the passage of the bill providing for a railroad through the territories, being a bill entitled: A bill to incorporate the Cheyenne and Black railroad and telegraph company, the result was, yeas, 39; nays, 9. Mr. Hill noting nay.

Upon the house taking up the post-office appropriation bill, quite a discussion ensued. Among others, Mr. Blount took part, chiefly in regard to the per diem of special agents of the postal department. He did not propose to interfere with salaries, nor make any change in that respect; his object was to re-arrange their per diem. This per diem was allowed for every day in the year, whether the agent is at church or is engaged in the performance of official duty, and the object of the committee to which he was attached, was to hold the department to the law, give a per diem for their actual expenses, and not to make this allowance of expenses a virtual increase of salary.

Upon a vote, Mr. Blount's amendment to the bill was lost. Ayes 119—nays 36.

Mr. Candler introduced a bill to establish and maintain a signal-service station at the city of Atlanta, in the state of Georgia; which was read a first and second time, referred to the committee on military affairs, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Candler also introduced bills, one for the relief of Michael Kreis, which was referred to the committee on war claims; also for relief of John Ficken; also John M. Nall, and a bill to remove the political disabilities of Larkin Smith, of this state. Mr. Candler also introduced a bill to establish a branch of the mint of the United States at Atlanta.

Mr. Gordon asked that the bill establishing general quarantine laws be acted on. It was a bill of a general character, and the season was advancing when it is necessary to the cities interested to take advantage of it. He said that the people of Savannah and the entire coast of Florida, Georgia, and the Carolinas are appealing here day by day, by telegram and otherwise, to the senate to act upon this bill, so that they may put into operation the important regulations which it suggests to protect them from the yellow fever now raging in Cuba, especially in the city of Havana, with which this entire coast is in communication almost daily, certainly weekly. It is no mere private bill, but a bill in which a large portion of the people are interested. The bill was finally taken up and passed.

Mr. Hartridge presented a bill for the relief of Robert Habersham, George Patton, and John L. Gallagher, or their executors or administrators, which was referred to the proper committee.

Upon a motion that the house resolve itself into a committee of the whole on the state of the union, for the purpose of continuing the consideration of the postoffice appropriation act, Mr. Blount said: "The gentleman says we add to the labors of the postmasters in requiring them to keep an account of the stamps sold. Well, sir, that is true; and that has generally been true since we have had a post-office department. The question is whether or not we shall get the service done under this method; and that is answered by all the past. There is an additional question, whether or not it protects the government against fraud. Gentlemen are very sensitive lest there should be some reflection upon the fourth-class postmasters. I am not. I find misconduct in my state reported, and in other states, from every section in this union. And as a representative upon this floor, bound to protect the government, I shall not hesitate to provide proper legislation against fraud, even if some over sensitive postmasters should imagine there is some reflection upon their integrity. Now, sir, during the last congress this very subject was presented, and a law providing this method, I believe, was a bill prepared by the present secretary of the treasury, Mr. Sherman. Some changes were made during the last congress; but, with the exception of this class, it is pretty much the old legislation, and I hope if there is any occasion to change the percentage that it will be done, not on an appropriation bill, but that it will be done through the committee on the postoffice and post roads who are charged with it. The subject of this increase to 70 per cent has not been considered, as I understand, before any committee; and that being the case, I hope the committee of the whole will not entertain it. Furthermore, if this shall be done the probability is that we shall have an increase of at least several hundred thousand dollars upon this bill. If gentlemen are prepared from time to time to lead up these bills in this crude and hasty way the responsibility is not on the committee on appropriations."

Mr. Felton introduced a bill for the relief of the trustees of the Presbyterian church in Marietta. Referred to committee on war claims.

Mr. Candler introduced bills for the relief of various parties affected by the war, among them James C. Freeman, R. H. Caldwell, J. N. Swift, C. V. Casson, T. G. Crussell, Christian Koutz, Austin Wright, John Silvy and Robert Webster, all of Georgia.

On the vote on the bill making appropriations for the construction, repair, preservation and completion of certain public works on rivers and harbors, and for other purposes, Mr. Stephens paired off with Mr. Hamilton.

The Effort to Displace Judge King On the Georgia Road Considered.

There is another side to this question which I propose to notice for a moment. It was not known that some gentlemen who own the largest interest of any private stockholders in the Atlanta and West Point railroad are the most active and zealous opponents of Judge King; and sometime ago we heard it rumored on every side that the object of these gentlemen in getting Judge King out and getting Gen. Alexander or some one else in, was to turn the western freights away from the Nashville and Chattanooga and State roads and bring them down the Louisville, Nashville and Great Southern to Montgomery and thence over the West Point road to Atlanta and thence to Augusta, thus cutting off the State road and the Nashville and Chattanooga, which is a route 175 miles shorter than the one by Montgomery. This may look very plausible to some of the stockholders of the Georgia road, for whom it was intended, by making it appear as though the whole business of the west would be turned around that way, and they would first get the benefit of it on the stock they own in the Atlanta and West Point road, and then get as much out of it from Atlanta to Augusta, as they now get. Well, if this could be done, and serve the interest of the large stockholders of the Atlanta and West Point road, who head this fight, it might look like a very pretty thing. But can it? While serving the interests of these big stockholders on the A. & W. P., the stockholders of the Georgia R. R. would be losing on every ton of freight that they carry from Atlanta to Augusta. Why? Because, in order to bring the business around by Montgomery, they must certainly bring it as low as it is brought over the N. & C. and the State roads. As already stated, the freight is prorated, each road getting its proportion according to the number of miles of its length between the two given points; for instance, between Nashville and Augusta. And as the line, by way of Chattanooga, is 175 miles shorter than the line around by Montgomery, the prorate which the Georgia railroad would get would be less, in proportion to the increased length of the route by adding to it 175 miles. This is a very pretty arrangement, and certainly looks well to the large stockholders in the Atlanta and West Point; but it would not work very well for the pockets of the stockholders of the Georgia road, who take a less proportion on every cargo on account of the lengthened line over which it comes in order to divide some of it with the West Point road. And as the interests of the Georgia road in the West Point road is less than one-third, it would not be making money much by the operation.

But this is not all. It is not to be presumed that the short line between Nashville and Augusta, that has so much the advantage on account of its shortness, as has already been stated, would stand idly by and see this pretty operation performed, without taking a part in the game. Whenever the Georgia railroad people fixed their rate of freight between Nashville and Augusta, and made the calculation how much per ton per mile the Georgia road would get as its proportion for carrying the freight around that long line, the lessees and those controlling the Nashville and Chattanooga road would be able to make a like calculation as quickly; and if they reduced their rates so as to get the same per cent per ton per mile that the Georgia railroad would get around its long line, the freight over the short line from Nashville, by way of Chattanooga, would be so much lower that it would all be turned back over the old channel; and it would become necessary for the Georgia railroad, and her new connections, to make further reduction, or the freight would not come her way. And it would not take more than one or two such reductions to get it to a point where the freight would not pay expense. Then where would be the dividends that are promised by beating Judge King and running the long line?

But there is still a little more than this connected with the question. Whenever it is ascertained by Colonel Cole, of the Nashville and Chattanooga road, and by his board of directors and by the lessees that this game has to be played—in other words, that the Georgia railroad intends to make war upon the lessees, and upon the Nashville and Chattanooga railroad, they will be very well prepared to meet it, and will very soon fatigue the aggressors in the campaign. Under the present arrangement the freights that come down into Alabama over the Louisville and Nashville road come to a certain line agreed upon by the two competing lines. For instance, Columbus is given up to the Louisville and Nashville; West Point is given up to the West Point and the other Georgia roads, and rates are maintained. But whenever those opposed to Judge King obtain power, and inaugurate the war, it will be very promptly met by the two links of the short line to the west.

The lessees are bound to carry freight for the Georgia and the Central roads, each, at exactly the same rate. It can not discriminate at all between them. But neither Col. Cole nor any one beyond Chattanooga is under any such obligations. Suppose this war to be inaugurated; the Nashville and Chattanooga railroad company may at once put agents in the field to have business for Augusta billed by the Central road. The State road has no right to inquire what are the motives of those beyond its limits, when billing the freights to one line or another.

All it has to do is to carry them all at the same price, from the same points, no matter who billed them, nor what the motive that prompted him to bill them. Then it would become the interest of this short line to form a close alliance with Mr. Wadley; and as Mr. Wadley would see that the new combination meant war on him, as well as upon the State road, and the Nashville and Chattanooga. I apprehend his good sense would determine the question very soon, and there would be no difficulty in shipping goods from Nashville by way of Atlanta, Macon and Millen to Augusta; and his line through Atlanta would then be still as short or shorter to Augusta, than the line around by Montgomery. Consequently goods could be put into Augusta by the Central railroad as cheaply as they could possibly be put there by coming around by Montgomery.

Again; in order to counteract the advantage that the stockholders of the Atlanta and West Point road think they would gain, by bringing it over their line, it would be only necessary to form a combination a little further with Mr. Wadly, and whenever the line already mentioned maintaining rates was broken down upon the river, the N. & C., and the W. & A., would claim the right to supply middle Alabama, or at least to come into active competition with the other roads, in doing so. But they would not carry the freight over the Atlanta and West Point, in doing so. They would carry the freight through Macon and Columbus and thence to Montgomery and to all the middle and lower parts of Alabama. And for the lower part of Alabama especially, it could be carried over the Central road and delivered to the road from Eufaula, penetrating that portion of the country. Thus a very large proportion of the business from the west for Alabama would in the fight be brought by way of Chattanooga and Atlanta and would go by way of Macon and Columbus or Macon and Eufaula into Alabama; and it would not once touch the Atlanta and West Point road. On the other hand, it would go into Augusta over the Central and never touch the Georgia railroad.

The Georgia road now has another very valuable point, in case they wage war. When the western products come over the short line to Atlanta for Athens, there are two lines reaching there, and much the shorter line goes by way of the Air Line and the North Eastern road. In the event of such a struggle as may be anticipated in case the enemies of Judge King succeed and inaugurate their policy, the N. & C. and the W. & A. would of course form a combination with the Air Line and N. E. road by which the business of Athens would be done over that line and not over the Georgia; or if done by the Georgia, it would be done at a rate at which there would be no money in it.

Now do the common-sense stockholders of the Georgia railroad see any thing that they are to make by gratifying the ambition, or the self-interest, of the few gentlemen who have made and are making war upon Judge King and the present management of the road? The result would be a railroad war that would materially injure both parties. It would injure the lesees, which would be very gratifying to some men. It would injure the N. & C. road. But still each of these roads has a resource to fall back on which neither the Georgia road nor the Atlanta and West Point road possesses. Each has a vast amount of iron and coal and other mineral developments along their line furnishing them hundreds of tons of freight daily, which cannot be taken from them. This advantage would enable them to live and conduct the war.

Now how is it with the Georgia road? Their chief local business is their cotton. Unless they make money on cotton they cannot possibly meet engagements or pay dividends. Suppose the war to be in operation. The Western and Atlantic lessees may give notice that they will carry cotton out through Dalton and to Norfolk, Va., at as low a rate, or lower than the Georgia road is carrying. And as between eight and nine tenths of all the cars that are loaded with provisions in the west and come down over these roads go back empty, they would load the cars back with cotton, and deliver them, say, at Cairo, at the mouth of the Ohio river, or Columbus, Ky., at a very low rate. They need only charge the cost of loading and unloading, and the very imperceptible difference in the wear of the car that goes loaded or unloaded. I would say that they could carry cotton to Cairo at $5 a car load. This would put it in connection with the great trunk lines, and carry it into New York readily. As matters now stand, this short western connection makes or claims but little out of the cotton; but whenever a war comes where it would be necessary to hurt the enemy, they could carry cotton at rates that would not permit the Georgia road to make anything out of cotton. Now, stockholders of the Georgia railroad, look at the picture, and see wherein it is defective. Have not the State road and the N. & C. power to carry cotton, under the circumstances, at the price mentioned, to Cairo? Can they not carry it through east Tennessee and out at Norfolk at the very lowest possible rate, low enough simply to cover the cost? And how much could you make out of cotton, with two such lines of competition, not being governed by any rates? You, too, must carry it at the cost of transportation. Again, suppose the N. & C. road were running in connection with the Central, and its freights billed by way of the Central for Augusta, passing over the State road and going down by Macon and Millen, missing the Georgia railroad entirely. This might be hurting the short line, but would it help you any? Would you not be the party most injured? Suppose on the other hand, as already mentioned, that this short line should undertake to make itself a long line, counteracting the long line around through Montgomery, and should undertake to supply middle Alabama, it would carry its freights by Macon and Columbus, and by Macon and Eufaula, never touching the Atlanta and West Point. How would this enrich you? How long could you stand such a war? It was tried a little the past winter; and everybody knows how the Georgia road fared during the trial. Gentlemen, you are not fortunately located, for the prosecution of such a warfare, and those of you who understand the question, very well know it. While the short line, by their local freights, as above mentioned, might live until it had conquered you by driving you into bankruptcy, it would be greatly damaged; but are you willing to go into bankruptcy to inflict heavy damage upon them? How would you be benefited by it? They can certainly stand it longer than you can, because of their greater advantages in local freights. Inaugurate the war, and it would greatly depreciate the value of the lease, and the value of the stock of the Nashville and Chattanooga road; but it would, in less than six months, put down the Georgia railroad stock to 25 cents on the dollar; and I venture the prediction if such a war comes, that the Georgia road goes into the hands of a receiver in less than one year.

The injury done to the lessees would be great gratification to some men, but while it gratified them, it would fail to put money in the pockets of stockholders of the Georgia railroad; indeed it would destroy the value of your property. Why then should you be gratified at such a result? I apprehend you will look to your interest, and let other people look to theirs, and you will hardly consent to ruin such a valuable piece of property, to gratify the feelings of the few gentlemen who are very anxious to injure another corporation.

Now there are hundreds of stockholders who have no interest in these schemes already mentioned. They have found the road faithfully and honestly managed by Judge King for almost a long life time. They know his integrity; they know his ability. Say what they may of his old age, I would like to find a man who is sharper and shrewder than he is in a railroad transaction. You talk about his salary. There are times when in half an hour he is worth three such salaries in warding off evil or preparing to meet it. What you need is his solid judgment, and good common sense and his long experience. You had better give him ten thousand dollars a year than put some successors in his place at no salary at all. Now, stockholders, consider these facts, and try to attend and hear the discussions, and then you will be better able to judge.

MORE ANON.

Colonel George Jones Alarmed.

New York Times.

If personal property may be destroyed with impunity, how long will the title to land be held sacred? After the greenbacker comes the communist, and the agrarian logic of the latter has little respect for the landowner's deeds. Clearly, then, the abstract reasoning of the economist is sound. The American farmer, as the owner of the land he tills, should be the most conservative of politicians. He cannot "pull up stakes" and run away when panic or revolution comes. His interest is real, permanent, and his true policy lies in a direction far removed from that in which the repudiator travels.

A Conundrum.

New York Paper.

And now the question which Senator Jones asks recurs—where are we to get the $350,000,000 of coin between now and the 1st of next January, which it will be necessary to add to the store of gold and silver which Secretary Sherman will have then available for purposes of resumption? The secretary expects to use the legal tenders as coin, but then they will have to be redeemed some time, and until they are finally got rid of the problem of resumption can hardly be said to have been solved.

Give Us More of the Same Lot.

Washington Post.

Although the announcement has been made that Senator Sharon would reach Washington to-day, we have seen no telegraphic herald of his approach. However, we shall keep a bras band at each of the depots to-day, in order that he may have some evidence of public appreciation when he does arrive. A man who has done as much for the country by keeping away from congress as Mr. Sharon has, should not be overlooked. We are sorry that there are not more republican senators of the Sharon type.

Cleaning out Hospitals and Asylums.

New York Herald.

It appears that most of men appointed to foreign places by Mr. Hayes, had the occasion of their appointment in their ill health. The minister to France—well, it was not the proper place to send him to, there being something if not whiskey there; and consumptive Comley to the Sandwich Islands, and poor Lee. Still, the lunatic and inebriate asylums and the surgical hospitals of Ohio are cleaned out, anyway.

The Ambition of a Bashi-Bazouk.

Washington Post.

Mr. Evarts has taken the trouble to say that he is not a candidate for president, but John Sherman has made no such damaging admission in his own case. John is really a candidate. He expects to have the united support of the syndicate and the 80,000 persons whom he has assisted to bankruptcy.

Consultation Between Parties.

Washington Post.

J. Madison Wells and John Sherman held a quiet caucus yesterday, and it is safe to say that we are approaching a solution of the distressing Louisiana question. The name of Mr. Anderson to be collector of the port of New Orleans will probably be transferred on a silver salver to the senate to-day.

A Conservative Minister.

New York Sun.

The Rev. Mr. Gordon attended the Huntsville lynching, and prayed for the victims in a very feeling manner. With a proper regard for the safety of his own neck, he failed to pray for the prominent citizens who were engaged in an act of deliberate murder.

What Fred's Bud has Done.

Boston Post.

Mr. Conkling has spoken his speech, stuck the cock's feather in his hat, pilloried his fellow-senators, put a poke about the neck of the "good" president, and shown how very little further need the country has of the republican party.

Another One of the Afflicted.

Philadelphia Times.

Speaker Randall must have the presidential bee buzzing lustily in his bonnet. He left the chair on Friday to rise on the floor for "the first personal explanation of his life," as he puts it. He's got 'em!

Goodness Gracious!

Springfield Republican.

Washington gossips note the fondness which the New York Adonis and the famous daughter of the late chief justice manifest for each other's society, and talk about it as gossips will.

A Side-Splitting Piece of Humor.

Springfield Republican.

The best joke yet about the house door-keeper squabble is the discovery that Field the ex-confederate whom the democrats preferred to Shields, was an out-an-out Grant man in 1872.

The Lunatics of Inflation.

Terre Haute Express.

The craziest inflationists under the sun are the banks which propose to redeem their $300,000,000 in notes with $5,000,000 in gold.

The India Rubber Man.

Wheeling Leader.

In five or ten years from now we suppose we will find Hayes the boss contortionist in some circus. His backbone is a series of missing links.

Where all the Clever and Industrious Editors Are.

Cartersville Express.

If there are any clever and industrious men on the state press they are settled on the Savannah News.

A State of Serene Satisfaction.

St. Louis Republican.

The country is satisfied with Mr. Hayes, whether his title is good or not.

E. Pluribus Unum.

Keokuk Constitution.

—It begins to look as if Beecher was only E Pluribus Unum.

--The greatest anxiety is experienced lest there should be a flaw in the title to property; yet a flaw in the title to health—as a cough or cold is disregarded. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup removes all such at once. 243

Memorial Day.

We publish below the programme for Memorial Day. We hope the various public bodies and associations will respond to the call of the marshal and help to make an imposing procession. The merchants and business men generally of the city should close their offices and places of business at 2 o'clock in order that all may unite in the sacred duties of the day. As Friday will be a legal holiday, all the banks, state institutions and schools will be closed for the day.

ROUNDABOUT IN GEORGIA.

—Marietta has an archery club.

—Cuthbert wants a public library.

—Judge George Lester is holding Pickens court this week.

—A revival is progressing in the colored Baptist church at Cuthbert.

—Col. Herbert Fielder is memorial day orator in Cuthbert.

—Glynn county agricultural fair the 29th and 30th of May.

—The fair in Americus comes off the 28th of May.

—Randolph county has a large number of fine colts.

—Jefferson, Jackson county, has a church organ.

—There will soon be a mail route Flowery Branch to Jefferson.

—A string band will be organized at Norcross.

—A big Sunday school celebration at Cave Spring, May 3d.

—At Stone Mountain, Decatur and Lithonia, there are flourishing Sunday schools.

—Some of the DeKalb county farmers report damage by the fly to the wheat crop.

—Thomas county is free from debt, and has a balance in the county treasury of $2 81 63.

—There are one hundred and twenty-five Sunday-school scholars in Hartwell.

—Under the auspices of Prof. Clark, the operetta "Laila" will be given in Marietta soon.

—In Tatnall county the late rains have injured the rice crop, which had just been planted.

—J. A. Sharpe has been elected captain of Mountain city steam fire company of Rome.

—Col. Edward Remington, of Thomasville, is dead. There were only two houses in the town when he settled there.

—A little son of Mr. W. Fitzgerald, had one foot and leg badly burned by the upsetting of a kerosene lamp a few nights since.

—On Mr. Moyer's plantation, in Randolph county, last week, a negro boy fired a gun into a crowd of negro boys, wounding four, two of them badly.

—Col. D. S. Printup, J. H. Reynolds and T. J. Williamson represent Rome in the commercial convention at Mobile.

—The Quitman factory is again in operation under the management of Mr. Williams, the former superintendent.

—The one hundred and twenty-eighth anniversary of the Union society of Savannah, took place at Bethesda on Tuesday.

—Already Savannah is making arrangements to entertain the Pharmaceutical association, of Georgia, which meets there next April.

—The great trotting race between Irish Girl and Maud, at Thunderbolt park course, Savannah, on Thursday afternoon, for a purse of one thousand dollars, is attracting much attention.

—The local of the Jesup Sentinel wrestles with a cough, and says: Everybody in Jesup are barking up the same tree. Plague-gone the whooping cough.

—Hartwell Sun: Hart county hasn't a general or colonel in it, but it has a large number of one-armed and one-legged soldiers. What county can show a better record?

—Gwinnett Herald: We understand that delegates to the International Sunday-school convention, who came down the Air-Line railroad last week organized a prayer meeting in the cars, between Norcross and Atlanta, and got up a considerable revival among the passengers. One man got up and made a clean confession, giving his career as a gambler, and asking an interest in the prayers of the meeting.

—Gwinnett Herald: We understand that Henry Betts, son of Mr. Lovick Betts, of this county, recently killed a man near White Sulphur, Kentucky. We have not seen the circumstances of the killing, but from what we understand it was in self defence The fact that he was admitted to bail, under a bond of one thousand dollars, shows that the committing court did not consider his offense as a very grave one.

—Gwinnett Herald: A statement was published a year or two since that R. M. Cole, who removed from this place to Texas, had been killed. This appears to have been a mistake, as we saw a letter from him last week, in which he stated that he was married, and had a boy ten months old. Dead men do not usually engage in these freaks.

—Gwinnett Herald: A fine limestone spring has been found upon Lieutenant Loveless's farm, near Gainesville. A man who lives in Hall county and does not own a mineral spring is regarded as a sort of a one-horse fellow who ought to go west. It is said that the water is so fine at some of their springs that an old man who has fifty pounds of rheumatism in his bones to the inch, can be rejuvenated. That it will make a new man of him, and there will be enough left to make a little dog.

—The Marietta Field and Fireside says: Stockholders in the Marietta and North Georgia railroad, unless they are willing to double their stock by paid up assessments, should not hesitate to transfer it. Without doing this, there is no probability of a completion of the road in many years to come. By so doing the road will be put in running order at an early day, and in the vast benefits resulting to the country the stockholders will find ample compensation for their liberality.

—The Marietta Field and Fireside says: Prof. J. S. Nichols bought years ago an orange tree, then about eighteen inches high. It was bearing. Eighteen months ago he cut it down to a mere stump, in order to rid it of worms that were destroying it. The tree is now about four feet high, having grown from the stump, and is covered with blossoms, ripe and green oranges.

—Marion superior court has just adjourned, and the Beuna Vista Argus in speaking of some of the criminal cases tried, says: Oliver Bosin for the murder of Jack Ross (both colored) in November last. In this case the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The jury, nevertheless, did right according to the evidence before them, but in our opinion there was something behind not drawn out, which would justify severe punishment. The reckless shedding of human blood should be stopped, and if nothing else will do it, the severity of the law should be inflicted. There was a very large crowd in the court room, and much surprise was expressed by the people and by the court at the large per cent of our people who are opposed to capital punishment. Judge Crawford said he regretted to see so much proof of failure to read the Bible, abstinence from preaching of the gospel or a want of faithfulness on the part of the minister in preaching the gospel. He stated if he wanted to commit murder he knew of no better place than Marion county in which to do it. Out of 57 men who were sworn, 33 of them were opposed to capital punishment.

The court appointed Mr. Carson, of Butler, Mr. James S. McCorkle, of Geneva, to defend the prisoner, and they done their duty well. Some little trouble was had in getting the jury to try the case, because of the many persons opposed to capital punishment.

—In speaking of the storm Tuesday night, the Rome Courier says: Yesterday morning about two o'clock a storm passed over this county, running in a direction from southwest to northeast, doing a great deal of damage to property; but as far as we have been able to learn no person was killed. We have learned the following facts as to the ravages of the storm: Silver creek Methodist church and an academy near by were entirely destroyed. John Martin's dwelling house was blown down. All the negro cabins on Judge Mobley's hill place were blown down, and one negro badly hurt. Miles Estes' house and barn were blown down. Berry Holder's house was blown down, and his mill damaged, and he had a fine horse killed. From Major Sale's gin-house to Mrs. Richie's the road is covered with fallen timber, and it will take twenty-five men two days to clear the road. Mrs. Hunt's house was partly blown down, and her son, Sam Hunt, was hurt. Newt. Wimpee's shop and a thousand panels of fence were blown down, also house on Sas. Haire's place. All the forest trees between Mrs. Griffin's and Mrs. Richie's are blown down. Near Mose Woodruff's the trees of a peach orchard were blown up by the roots and carried out into the road. Havey Washington's house and those of the two Oswalds, near the poor house, were blown down, and the families of the Oswalds lost all their clothing except what they had on. A house on Dr. Mitchell's place, containing eleven persons, was blown down and most of the furniture destroyed, but no one was hurt. The house was occupied by Waddy Cantrell. The sweep of the storm was from one-half to three-fourths of a mile in width.

DOWN IN DIXIE

—A few dogs killed 35 sheep in Knox county, Tenn., a few nights ago.

—The oration commencement day, Vanderbilt University, May 28th, by Hon. J. S. Preston, Columbia, S. C.

—A Houston, Texas, judge has decided that no United States officer when off duty can, without violating the law, carry concealed weapons.

—The supreme court of Alabama has decided that a doctor may be summoned as a witness, and be made to give a medical opinion without compensation.

—The Tennessee press association meets in Knoxville on the 20th of June, and the Kentucky press association meets in Hopkinsville about the middle of the same month.

—The southern states only get about $1,500 000 of the $7,300,000 river and harbor appropriation passed yesterday. New York gets $826 000 and Michigan $565,800. Yet the republicans tell us that this is a "southern raid on the treasury."

—A Richmond special says: John Jasper, the colored preacher, who has taken the ground that the sun moves around the earth, has been secured by a Richmond party to lecture in the northern cities, and will leave here next Monday. His first lecture will be delivered in Washington.

—On the night of the 15th instant, Jos. D. Tulloss, whose farm is near Bristersburg, in lower Fauquier, had forty-eight out of a flock of sixty-three sheep killed by dogs. His loss has been appraised at $104—the assessor's value. In a note to a friend Mr. Tulloss says the sheep killed were the very best of his flock.—Warrenton True Index.

—Victoria, Texas, Advocate: The Dallas Morning Call, after estimating that Texas has received in the last twelve years $15 000,000 for cattle, wants to know what has become of all this money, intimating that most of it is "salted down in silver or gold on the ranches; put away in old stockings and trunks, and rusting for want of use," etc. Never was there a greater mistake. The largest part of the money received by the stock men of Texas has gone for fencing.

—Marianna (Jackson county, Fla.) Courier: Every nerve is now exerted for the planting of corn, and in some instances preparing for the cotton crop. The usual acreage, we presume, is being prepared for the respective crops. It is with satisfaction, however, we learn that less acreage is being planted in corn and cotton, and that part usually used for these crops now presents beautiful fields of green oats, rapidly growing.

—The negroes are to hold a convention in Charlotte, North Carolina, on the 16th of September next, the object of which is to petition the law-making powers of the country to restore the whipping-post for stealing and other grievous offenses. Stephen McCorkle, a colored man, is at the head of the move, and he says there will be delegates from several southern state. Of course the white criminals of the like sort would come in for whippings also—which kind of reconciles the blacks to it. This is the case in Virginia, Delaware, etc. To the states it saves much in not having to maintain so many petty offenders in prisons.

—Keowee (S. C. Courier: One might say that Atlanta, Georgia, was highly honored in having the second International Sunday school convention with her, April 17 19, 1878, and we could readily see, upon entering the city that Atlanta considered herself honored, and was ready to entertain most hospitably any delegate, whether he came from the north, south, east or west, or from Canada or Italy. More than this, they were not willing to let the delegates off at the end of the third day, but insisted that they should remain over on Saturday and enjoy the big jubilee, with the additional inducement that the ladies of Atlanta would give a big dinner to the delegates.

—Reliable help for weak and, nervous sufferers. Chronic, painful and prostrating diseases cured without medicine. Pulvermacher's Electric Belts the grand desideratum. Avoid imitations. Book and Journal with particulars, mailed free. Address PULVERMACHER GALVANIC COMPANY, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Rowland Springs.

ROWLAND SPRINGS HYGIENIC INSTITUTE.

Open for Invalid and Hygienic Boarders.

The only Institute South superintended by a regularly qualified Hygienic Physician. It is not a summer resort for the gay and fashionable world—but a place where the sick may, at any and all times of the year, depend upon quiet, rest and home-like surroundings. Neither is it (as erroneously applied and often understood by Hygienic) a One Bath establishment proposing to cure all diseases by inducing excessive action of one organ—the Skin, but a place where all real remedial appliances are judiciously employed as aids in restoring all the vital organs to perform normal functions. All enervating and debilitating processes as well as medical drug poisons are positively excluded in the treatment of the sick.

Patients afflicted with Acute diseases or suffering from Old Standing Chronic Complaints, of every description, may rely upon SCIENTIFIC TREATMENT and SPEEDY RESTORATION. Hundreds of invalids, after being drugged and dosed almost to death—and given up as incurable by the drugopathic professions—have been speedily and completely restored to health.

Home Prescriptions. Many persons unable to leave family or business, can, by a little knowledge of Hygienic treatment, be restored to health at home by prescription and advice forwarded on reception of full description of symptoms and duration of disease. Commissioner's Postponed Sale

J. Nelson Tappan. Trustee. &c., vs. The Cherokee Railroad Company and others. In Equity, in the Circuit Court of the United States for Northern District of Georgia.

BY virtue of a Decree in the cause above stated, the undersigned Commissioners duly appointed by said Court, will, on the FOURTH DAY OF JUNE, 1878, (being the first Tuesday in said month) before the Court House door in the city of CARTERSVILLE, in the county of Bartow, Georgia, during the usual hours of public sales sell at public outcry, the following property of the defendant, the CHEROKEE RAILROAD COMPANY, to-wit: Its Railroad situate in the counties of Bartow and Polk Georgia, from its terminus at Cartersville, in said county of Bartow, to the terminus at Prior's Station on the Selma, Rome and Dalton Railroad, in the said county of Polk, with its franchise, rights, privileges and immunities, including its road-bed, bridges, trestles, and iron, and its locomotives, cars, trucks, with all appurtenances and all its other property, real, personal or mixed: This sale not to include any personal property not now in the possession of Daniel S. Printup, the Receiver in said cause, or money or chases in action.

Terms—Five thousand dollars to be paid down at the close of the sale

Of the residue, one-third to be paid within thirty days, one-third within sixty days, and one-third within ninety days from the day of sale, each of these three installments to bear interest from the day of sale at the rate of ten per cent per annum, and to be paid in the city of New York

If the cash payment of five thousand dollars is not made promptly, the Commissioners will be at liberty to re-sell immediately on the same day

If any of the remaining payments is not made within the time herein specified, all money paid on the purchase, and all right of the purchaser to the property sold or its possession will be forfeited and the Commissioners will have the right to take possession of said property and to re-sell the same.

Said sale will be made subject to confirmation by said Court on the report of the Commissioners.

Possession will be given as soon as the first of said three installments of the residue of the purchase money is paid.

Titles will be made by the Commissioners, under and by approval of said Court, when all of the purchase money is paid.

Railroad Schedule.

Piedmont Air-Line.

THE great Double Daily Passenger Route between Atlanta all points in the Southwest and Richmond, Washington City, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Boston and all Eastern Cities.

This Line passes directly through the beautiful and picturesque Piedmont belt of North Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia, embracing the celebrated watering places, mineral regions, and beautiful thriving cities of this belt; the most prominent of which are Gainesville. (fifty-three miles North of Atlanta,) surrounded by many beautiful and health-restoring springs, and the celebrated gold fields of North Georgia; Mount Airy, (the most elevated point between Savannah and New York); Toccoa, (immediately in the vicinity of beautiful Water Falls of Toccoa and Tallulah); Seneca City, Greenville, Spartanburg, Cowpens, Gaffney City, King's Mountain, Charlotte, Concord, Lexington, Danville, Richmond, and many other points of historical interest. For scenery and general interest to the traveler, this section cannot be excelled.

This Line is 72 miles shorter than any other, and on and after Monday, March 24th, passengers leaving Atlanta at 5 05 a.m. will arrive in Washington City at 8:10 a. m. the following morning. 6½ hours in advance of any other route; and by same train, will arrive in New York City the second evening at 4 08 by Limited Express, or at 5 10 by regular Southern Express train, 7½ hours in advance of any other line.

By this train you are only one night (between Charlotte and Washington) in Sleeping Car, which makes it cheaper than any other route.

Passengers leaving Atlanta at 5 00 p. m., arrive in Washington City at 1 27 a. m., and in New York 9 35 a m second day.

—The various manufactories of Atlanta are doing a fine paying business.

—Passenger travel over the various railroads leading into this city is brisk.

—The hammer and the saw are heard and building is progressing quite rapidly.

—The races of to-morrow are much talked of among the boys. Go out and see it.

—The Cadets' prize drill and hop last evening was a grand success in every particular.

—Smith Clayton's lecture of "Closer-to-my Bosom-Come," last night, was a rich production.

—Six or eight car loads of mules and horses have arrived in this city during the past few days.

—The stallion match race Saturday next will be hotly contested and some fine sport may be expected.

—Moonlight excursions are now order. One or two are spoken of, which will probably come off at an early date.

—Everybody will go to the cemetery this afternoon and pay a tribute of respect to the memory of the heroes of the "Lost Cause."

—The opera of "Ill Trovatore" will be certainly given by the Rossini club at the opera house. It will be a rare musical event.

—Lewis H. Clarke received twenty-five cases of hats yesterday, embracing all the latest styles, and he says they must be sold right off.

—The North Georgia Stock and Fair association will have a meeting at an early day to organize permanently. The outlook is quite promising.

—The Dime club of the First Methodist church had a pleasant meeting last night at the residence of Mr G W D Cook, on Spring street.

—One of the most pleasant social events of the week will be the meeting of the Irving club to-night at the residence of Mr D P Hill, Marietta street.

—The Odd Fellows of Gainesville will come to this city on an excursion Saturday next. They will be entertained by the various societies of a similar order in our city.

—Mr. Sousong, a horse trader, passed through the city Wednesday last with a fine pair of gray horses which he was shipping to Savannah for a fire company in that city.

—Mr. G. A. Brooks, who has been studying law under Judge Mynatt for some months past was yesterday admitted to the bar of Fulton superior court. He is from Ohio but will remain in Atlanta for the practice of his profession.

—Prof. J. C. Consigny resumed his walking under the canvass opposite the car shed at 8 o'clock p. m. Wednesday night, where he will finish the walk. To-day at 12 o'clock he will complete his 3,0.h mile, the greatest number of miles ever made on a consecutive hour walk by any man. The walk will be completed next Wednesday night at 11 o'clock, as then the last mile will be made. He will then declare himself champion of the world as a long distance consecutive hour walker. There is perfect order in the whole proceeding. No betting or gambling of any kind is allowed, and the professor himself is not even walking for a wager. He is merely walking for the honest fame of the feat which he will accomplish. Admission twenty-five cents.

Admitted to the Bar.

Mr. Joseph J. Eckford, who for the past year has been studying law in the office of Marshall J. Clark, was admitted to the bar on yesterday morning, after an examination in open court. Though a very young man—being but seventeen years of age—he exhibited a highly creditable degree of information. With his superior talents, pleasing address and energy of character, his friends predict for him a successful career in the profession of his choice.

—There will be a special service for women at Young Men's Christian association hall Sunday afternoon at five o'clock.

Hats

We say hats, for we examined one of the largest and most varied stocks yesterday that we have ever seen brought to this market. It embraces every style and fashion, and of every material used for the manufacture of hats. We found them at the house of Mr. Lewis H. Clarke, who has just returned from the north, and has received, and is daily receiving, cases containing hats suited to every taste and purse. Silk hats, felt, Panama, India Panama, leghorn, straw, etc. Mr. Clarke has unquestionable taste, and, selecting the goods himself, we guarantee satisfaction to all who will call on him. Buying by the case, and giving the matter his personal attention, we can confidently assert that an inspection of goods is all that is required to swell the already large number of customers he has —The Young Men's Christian association hall has been handsomely decorated by the ladies, and it now presents an exceedingly attractive appearance

A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

Established The Christian Index & Southern Baptist. in 1821.

A LARGE EIGHT-PAGE RELIGIOUS AND FAMILY JOURNAL

HAS BEEN THE STATE ORGAN OF THE GREAT BAPTIST FAMILY FOR FIFTY-SEVEN YEARS.

REV. DAVID E. BUTLER,
MANAGING EDITOR.

Aided by a Corps of the most Eminent Writers in the Denomination, among whom are:

S. Landrum, Memphis, Tenn.	J. H. DeVotie, Atlanta, Ga.
L. R. Gwaltney, Marion, Ala.	Wm. C. Crane, Independence, Tex.
T. G. Jones, Nashville, Tenn.	B. W. Bussey, Mobile, Ala.
B. H. Carroll, Waco, Texas.	J. C. Hiden, Greenville, S. C.
T. R. Pritchard, Raleigh, N. C.	J. B. Hawthorne, Montgomery, Ala.
J. H. Chambliss, Charleston, S.C.	F. N. Kerfoot, Baltimore, Md.
P. H. Mell, Athens, Ga.	John J. Brantley, Macon, Ga.
J. M. Phillips, Chattanooga, Tenn.	B. Manly, Jr., Georgetown, Ky.
J. F. B. Mays, Knoxville, Tenn.	J. N. Weaver, Weatherford, Texas.

☞ And many leading Georgia Baptists.

Delivered by mail, to new subscribers, postage paid, at $2.60 a year, with choice of either of these three splendid premiums:
PORTRAIT OF GEORGIA MINISTERS,
MAP OF PALESTINE,
MAP OF THE SOUTHERN STATES,
sent in addition to THE INDEX for subscription price alone.

SOME REASONS WHY

Every Baptist Family should take and read it:

1st. It is worth more than it costs.

2d. It is the only paper that will inform Baptists of the workings and doings of Baptists in the State.

3d. As a denomination, we are not only strong numerically, but represent a large amount of property, and should have pride and liberality enough to sustain a good Baptist paper.

4th. While it is true the paper is richly worth the present subscription price ($2.60), we offer as an inducement to each subscriber, choice of three valuable Premiums, either of which is nearly worth all the paper costs.

ATTRACTIONS FOR 878

THE INDEX, under the careful direction of Rev. D. E. BUTLER, Managing Editor, assisted by his able associates, rivals the best religious periodicals of the continent in the variety of its ☞original matter, the scope of its religious and secular intelligence, and the completeness of its several departments. Its features are embraced in this ample arrangement:

SPIRIT OF THE RELIGIOUS PRESS—containing the very cream of thought in the religious papers of the world.

LIVING PULPIT—filled each week by a Sermon from one of our ablest Ministers.

OUR CORRESPONDENTS—discussing living questions of the day, denominational and secular.

BAPTIST NEWS AND NOTES—presenting a birds-eye view of our denomination at work.

GENERAL DENOMINATIONAL NEWS—giving condensed accounts of all important events transpiring in the Christian world.

SECULAR NEWS—posting our readers on all matters of interest occurring in the secular world.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL—containing expositions of the International Lessons, and discussion of Sunday-school topics.

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD—embracing many facts and hints valuable to farmers, and furnishing matter for fireside reading, interesting to old and young.

JOHN KEELY

Begs the attention of the public to the following facts, and will be grateful for a close and critical examination of the goods and prices in his stock, which are here referred to, this being the largest stock he has ever offered. Having just returned from New York, where he was in daily attendance upon Trades Auction Sales, picking up surprising bargains, and often being tempted into buying goods entirely out of his line, but which were literally slaughtered (such as Carpets, Hats, Cutlery, etc.), he IS ABLE to offer goods at prices entirely without competition.

This is a Bold Saying, But It is a True One.

Not being trammeled by the ties of partnership, nor by the business ideas of other days, long since grown obsolete, he has the boldness to take hold of immense lines of goods whenever he can obtain them AT THE LOWEST PRICES, and then, having carried abundance of cash with him, be had advantages, ON A LARGE SCALE, from which many others are debarred in the purchase of goods. The stock is IMMENSE!! The prices LOWER than ever before!!!

DRESS GOODS, SILKS, GRENADINES, etc

Every thing new in Dress fabrics, including Damasse, Faconne, Brocatelle and Bourrette fabrics.
Every thing in "Clair de Lune" and Knickerbocker fine Grenadines. Price almost half what is asked elsewhere.
Black Grenadines in immense variety, from Kobbe & Ball's auction sale. Half price.
Buntings in all colors, 25 cents per yard, choice goods, new colors
50 pieces black brilliantine, light summer weight, 35c yard, warranted worth 50c elsewhere.
3,000 yards solid color gros grain silks from auction (to arrive Tuesday), 60c yard, selling elsewhere at $1.
5,000 yards elegant spring striped silks, choicest grades, 50c yarrdd. (This is not a mere spoonful of goods, put down below cost to create "breeze" in trade. I have 100 pieces of them from auction, and make a profit on every one I sell. They were slaughtered in New York.)
500 yards elegant black dress silk, 75c yard, selling everywhere at $1.
4,200 yards choice imported black gros grain silks $1 yard, guaranteed as good as sell here at $1 50.
The best and cheapest line of colored gros grain silks in Georgia, just opened from auction.

A Great Specialty!

150 cut lengths, running from one to three dress patterns each, $1 50 per yard, which cost $2 in gold to land in this country, BUT THEY HAD TO GO TO TO THE MERCILESS AUCTION ROOM. All the novelties in spring silks, including black and white checks, colored stripes, etc. very cheap.

One Word About those Silks!
BUY THEM AT ONCE! YOU WILL NEVER SEE THEM AGAIN

80 pieces black cashmeres, at prices beyond the whisper of competition.

Hosiery and Gloves!

1,000 doz Misses' English hose, white cotton, 10c pair, well worth 25c to 35c. Wonderful bargain.
1,000 doz Misses' fine grade striped cotton hose, 25c pair, same I have been selling at 50c
A magnificent line of childs' white and fancy three-fourth socks, finest grades, very cheap.
A very fine line of ladies' fancy cotton hosiery at from 10c pair to 50c for the best.
The finest Balbriggin hose made, both white and brown, 50c pair, worth 75c elsewhere.
Everything in men's, ladies', misses' and childs' hosiery which can be desired.
2,000 pair black, white and opera colored kid gloves, nice pliant skin, 50c pair.
2,500 pair black, white and opera colored kid gloves at from 75c pair to $1 25 for the very best made.
Customers of mine recognize the fact that I never advertise any thing which is not to be found in my stock and which is not "especially" a bargain

LINENS, WHITE GOODS, DRESS LINENS.

I challenge any house in Georgia to match the following goods in Linen Department viz: My 50 cts Bleached Irish Fronting Linen, my 50 cts. Bleached Table Linen, my 15c 20c and 25c Brown Dress Linen, my 12½c, 15c and 20c White Victoria Lawn, my 50c Red Table Linen, my 25 Half Bleached all Linen Table Damasks, my 10c White Victoria Lawn, my Bishops Lawns in quality and price, embracing finest grades.

The Largest and Most Beautiful Stock of Tucked Muslins Ever Offered in Georgia

The greatest bargains in fine Towels ever offered in Atlanta "BY ALL ODDS." A magnificent line of White Muslins, the relics of Cochran, McLean & Co's stock, HALF PRICE

LADIES' TIES, SCARFS, ETC.

2000 all Silk Embroidered Ties, Lace 25c, former price $1. 150 Fancy Lace End Silk Ties 35c, usually 85c. Everything new and desirable in Silk and Lace Ties. Spanish Lace Scarfs, etc., at marvellously low prices. Tens of thousands collars and cuffs, Lace and Embroidered Hankerchiefs etc., half price. Rouchings in immense variety Prices 25 to 30 per cent less than ever.

PARASOLS, PARASOLS.

A most extraordinary stroke of success has attended the purchase of these. 2,500 of the finest Silk Parasols made will be offered at half price, $1 75 and $2 00, worth $3 50 and $4 00. 1,500 beautiful Cot Back Serge, large size $1 00 each worth $2 25. 200 of the greatest novelties of the season, very cheap. 3,000 good Gingham Parasols, 10c, 15c and 20c each, selling elsewhere at double the money.

NOTIONS, ETC.
This Has Become one of my Leading Departments.

The finest stock of Pearl Buttons, embracing White and Smoked, with holes and shanks, and of every conceivable size and variety which has ever been carried by one house in Georgia. Prices low. Everything new in Silk Buttons, black and colors big Ivory Buttons of surpassing beauty and cheapness. Wool and Silk Fringes warranted half the market price, in immense variety, besides all kinds of Trimmings and "Bijouterie," which goes to compose a first-class Notion Department.

IMMENSE BARGAINS IN FANS.

40 dozen of the very finest silk satin Fans made, guaranteed one-fourth to one-half their value.
Everything new and beautiful in Japan China, French and German Fans. Prices less than elsewhere.

EMBROIDERIES.

I have 140 000 yards Edgings and Insertions, and in my life, never saw anything to compare with them in quality and price. One of my clerks matched a piece of dollar Edging from another house on Tuesday last for 35 cents. This is true, AND THIS PROPORTION PERVADES THE WHOLE STOCK, more or less.

Specialties, from Auction.

4 500 yards first rate, yard-wide CARPET, 15 cents per yard. Never was made for three times the price.
1 000 yards damaged brown Dress Linen. Yard wide, 15 cents, worth 35 cents per yard.
50 pieces red Table Linen, 50 cents per yard, worth 85 cents.
1,000 suits (to be opened this week), fine Linen goods, half price.
2,000 gross of the finest and cheapest Pearl Dress Buttons ever shown in Georgia.
3,000 yards handsome gros grain Silk, solid colors, (to arrive Tuesday), 60 cents per yard, selling everywhere at $1.00 and $1.25.
1,400 yards new style Dress Goods, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cents, selling elsewhere for 25 per cent. more.

SHOES! SHOES!

I have a full line of Ziegler's Celebrated Shoes, just opened, bearing his stamp, besides Burt's and other celebrated makes. I guarantee all my ter grades of shoes, allowing no trash to creep into the stock. Ladies' Newport ties $1 00 and $1.25. Slippers 50 cents per pair. Cloth gaiters common wear 75 cents per pair, but my specialty is in the best shoes. These I sell cheap.
Shoes which I guarantee, if they do not wear as they should, I replace them without any effort to avoid it.

Relief for the Afflicted

DR. RICE,
37 Court Place, LOUISVILLE, KY.,

A regularly educated and legally qualified physician and the most successful, as his practice will prove.

Cures all forms of PRIVATE, CHRONIC and SEXUAL DISEASES.

Spermatorrhea and Impotency, as the result of self-abuse in youth, sexual excesses in maturer years, or other causes, and producing some of the following effects: Nervousness, Seminal Emissions, (night emissions by dreams), Dimness of Sight, Defective Memory, Physical Decay, Pimples on Face, Aversion to Society of Females, Confusion of Ideas, Loss of Sexual Power, &c., rendering marriage improper or unhappy, are thoroughly and permanently cured. SYPHILIS positively cured and entirely eradicated from the system; Gonorrhea, GLEET, Stricture, Orchitis, Hernia (or Rupture), Piles and other private diseases quickly cured.

It is self-evident that a physician who pays special attention to a certain class of diseases, and treating thousands annually, acquires great skill. Physicians knowing this fact often recommend persons to my care. When it is inconvenient to visit the city for treatment, medicines can be sent privately and safely by mail or express anywhere.

Cures Guaranteed in all Cases undertaken.

Consultations personally or by letter free and invited. Charges reasonable and correspondence strictly confidential.

PRIVATE COUNSELOR

Of 200 pages, sent to any address, securely sealed, for thirty (30) cents. Should be read by all. Address as above. Office hours from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays, 2 to 4 P. M.
